MARION CARPENTER MARRIES A. P. PAINE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Carpenter, 58 Central street, Somerville, Mass., was the scene of a very pretty June wedding on Tuesday evening, June 12, when their only daughter, Marion Hope Carpenter, was united in marriage to Albert Palmer Paine of St. Johnsbury. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ernest Mills, Ph. D., the double ring service being used. Only the immediate friends and relatives attended the wedding, but about 200 were at the reception.

The bride wore white silk net over satin and veil caught at the side with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Margaret Paine of St. Johnsbury, sister of the bridegroom, was maid-of-honor. She wore pink chiffon and carried pink sweet peas. The ring bearer was little Margaret Smith of Saco, Me. The ushers, three of the bride's girl friends, Misses Ruth and Miriam Kingman of Somerville, Mass., and Miss Dorothy Derby of Arlington, wore dainty colored gowns. Miss Ruth Donaldson played the wedding march.

The rooms were beautifully decorated by Howard of Boston. In the parlor there was a bower of palms of which long-stemmed carnations were arranged in clusters. From the chandelier were hung the same flowers combined with asparagus. Over the pictures and doors and from everhook boughs of hemlock were used as a background to the ceremony while on the grand piano was a jardiner with snowballs and gladioli. The library was tastefully adorned with potted pink roses and pink carnations. The stairway was done with a network of hemlock from which deep pink carnations peeped. In the archway of the hall was an arbor of rangeland of Japanese wisteria extending to the dining room, where yellow marguerites decorated the chandelier.

A collation was served to 250 guests who tendered hearty congratulations to bride and groom. The parents of the bride, the maid-of-honor and the best man assisted the couple in receiving. Many beautiful gifts of glass, silver, linen, pictures and furniture besides much gold, showed the esteem in which the bride and groom are held. Mr. and Mrs. Paine were married at 2 o'clock at the Masonic Temple.

Austin A. Annis was born January 1, 1849, in Bath, N. H. He married Estella Bailey, of Barnet, in 1872, who survives him. Five children were born to them, all of whom survive Mr. Annis. They are Mabel E., now Mrs. P. K. Sloggy; Lena B., Arthur A., Roscoe M. and Hazel B., now Mrs. R. B. Bigelow.

Mr. Annis began work with the E. and T. Fairbanks & Co. in 1872 and worked with the firm continuously until within five days of his death. He had been troubled with rheumatism through the spring of this year and was unable to attend to his work, but he was able to return six weeks previous to his last illness.

DEATH OF MRS. HOWELL

Former St. Johnsbury Resident Dies at Home in Jarvis, Ont.

News has been received of the death of Helen Newell Howell, June 12, at her home in Jarvis, Ont. Mrs. Howell was a resident of St. Johnsbury until her marriage, August 14, 1914, to Dr. B. G. Howell, of Jarvis. She was a member of the Comus Club, a graduate of the St. Johnsbury Academy, and was very popular among her young friends. Mrs. Howell is survived by her husband, a son one year of age, two brothers, Charles and George Newell, of Lyndonville, and one sister, Mrs. Howard Walker, of Amesbury, Mass. She was 29 years of age.

Death of Mrs. Stoddard.

Mrs. Louise Stoddard died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mary Cate, 40 Central street, St. Johnsbury, Monday morning. The funeral will be held at West Burke G. A. R. Hall Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. The W. R. C. ladies are requested to be present in a body.

WOMAN DISAPPEARS AFTER LEAVING NOTE

Mrs. Cyril Cardinal of James street, mother of seven young children, disappeared from her home at 8 o'clock Saturday evening and though a search was instituted, has not yet been found. She left a note saying that she was tired of the cares of the home, had gone never to return, and that it would be useless to search for her.

Mr. Cardinal notified the police Sunday morning and began a search for the woman which, as late as Sunday night, had been in vain. It is thought Mrs. Cardinal might have gone to the home of relatives in New Haven, but no evidence is forthcoming to prove that she has gone there. The seven children, ranging in age from a few months to thirteen years, are Marie, Rebecca, Joseph, Emma, Olive, Evelyn, and Rosalind.

Regular Meeting Is Held.

One hundred and eighty-five women were present at the regular meeting of the St. Johnsbury branch of the Red Cross yesterday at the Armory. This number included 25 young girls who came and offered to work for the society. They were placed in Miss Rooney's department making pillows. Their work was excellent. The sale table, conducted by Mrs. Alexander Dunnett once more proved popular and all materials to hand were sold out. All are requested to bring saleable articles, especially food, for the purpose of selling at this table. The money obtained goes to the fund.

Union Services For Summer.

Arrangements have been made whereby union services will be held at the South and North Churches alternately throughout the summer, beginning with the second Sunday in July. For the first four weeks all services will be held in the South Church, with Mr. Richards in charge. They will then be transferred to the North Church and will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Swain, supplied by the South Church.

The Goss Hollow School closed Friday. Mary McCuaig had no absent marks for the year. Those having no absent marks for the term were Susie McCuaig, Walter Cassidy, Wayne Newell, Marion McCuaig and Doris Hutchins. Those absent only one day were Rae Aslie, Donald McCuaig and Fred Tupper.

STOPPED HIS BACKACHE.

George Lawrence, railroad fireman, Kittrell, Miss., used three one-dollar bottles of Foley Kidney Pills when I was so sick I hardly could stay on my engine. My back ached all the time; my kidneys acted sluggish; dull headache; felt sleepy all the time; nervous; had to rise six to eight times each night. Foley Kidney Pills cured me. They strengthen the kidneys so they can filter out of the blood the uric acid and other poisons that cause rheumatic pains, backache, stiff joints and sore muscles.

—CHARLES A. SEARLES & CO.

"Tony the Convict" will be given at Barnet Friday at 8 p. m., for the benefit of the Red Cross.

MRS. M. B. WEST, AGED 94, DIES AT HER HOME

Mrs. Marietta B. West, supposed to be the oldest resident of St. Johnsbury, died at her home here early Sunday morning, at the age of 94 years. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from her late residence. Mrs. West was a member of the North Church for 35 years and was the last surviving member of the Seventy Club, one of the most popular clubs of days gone by.

Mrs. West was born at Peacham, March 26, 1823. She married Azra West, of Danville, at Peacham, March 7, 1843. The couple lived in St. Johnsbury after their marriage until Mr. West's death, about 28 years ago. Mrs. West had lived in the old homestead since that time.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Rowe, of Barnet, a son Charles of St. Johnsbury, three grandchildren, Paul A. West, Mrs. Carl Lang, of Danville, and Guy West of San Diego, Cal., and five great-grandchildren.

DEATH OF AUSTIN A. ANNIS

After illness of five days with pneumonia.

Austin A. Annis, aged 68 years, died Monday morning at 1:55 o'clock at Brightlock Hospital after an illness of five days with pneumonia. Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Masonic Temple.

Austin A. Annis was born January 1, 1849, in Bath, N. H. He married Estella Bailey, of Barnet, in 1872, who survives him. Five children were born to them, all of whom survive Mr. Annis. They are Mabel E., now Mrs. P. K. Sloggy; Lena B., Arthur A., Roscoe M. and Hazel B., now Mrs. R. B. Bigelow.

FIVE MEN LEAVE TODAY.

Reception Given in Honor of Departing Men at Red Men's Hall

About seventy five young people met at Red Men's Hall last evening to honor the five young men who leave today for Fort Ethan Allen. They are: Alphonse Asselin, Arthur Carriere, Albert Barie, Ladislav Lacroix and A. A. Drouin. A wrist watch was presented to each of the departing men as a token of the esteem in which they are held by their friends. A very pleasant social evening was spent.

HONORS AWARDED AT U. V. M. GRADUATION

Burlington, June 25, 1917.

The annual graduating exercises of the University of Vermont were held in the University gymnasium this morning. Prayer was offered by Rev. George W. Davenport of Burlington, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church. President Benton then introduced, as the commencement orator, Dr. Hollis Godfrey, president of the Drexel Institute, Philadelphia, in charge of the educational work for the council of national defense.

The graduating class included a considerable number of men from the officers' training camp at Plattsburg, who wore the army uniform.

Honors Awarded.

The senior honor list for general high standing included the names of Morton H. Arms of Burlington, Elizabeth W. Baker of Upper Montclair, N. J., Abner C. Bristol of Townsend, Francis R. Churchill of South Londonderry, Helen L. Dewey of Royalton, Jessie G. Fiske of Brookfield, Mary Frank of Burlington, Ruth L. Gates of Essex Junction, Pearl M. Grandy of Burlington, Frederick W. Hackett of Champlain, N. Y., Barton F. Howe of Chester, Fay H. Hunt of Essex Junction, Robert F. Joyce of Proctor, Luther G. Lougee of Sanborn, N. H., Earle F. Walbridge of Enosburg Falls. Special honors in Angli-Saxon were awarded to Marion P. Walker of Cabot. The honor men in medicine were Maurice L. Cheney of Lyndonville, Paul F. Gadle of Norwich, Ct., Leland M. McKinlay of Newbury, Charles E. Morse of Rutland and James O. O'Neil of Burlington.

The first and second prizes for special merit in medicine were awarded, respectively, to Leland M. McKinlay of Newbury and Maurice L. Cheney of Lyndonville.

The Woodbury prize for greatest efficiency in clinical work was awarded to John F. Collins of Marlboro, Mass. The Bissel prize for progress, awarded at the close of the junior year, was given to Katherine M. Jordan of Barre and R. A. Walcott of Glover. Owing to the fact that the rank of these two students was so nearly equal, two prizes were awarded instead of one. The amount of the prize is twenty-five dollars.

Honorary Degrees.

Doctor of Laws—Governor Horace F. Graham of Craftsbury; Commissioner of education Milo B. Hillegas of Montpelier; General Joseph T. Dickman, U. S. A., of North Ethan Allen.

Doctor of Engineering—President Hollis Godfrey of Drexel Institute, Philadelphia, Pa.
